Communications Project

Group Evaluations

POLS 418

<ol> <li>Describe your contribution to the communication pr</li> </ol>	roject.
--	---------

2. Describe your other group members' contribution to the project.

3. Describe any problems you had with your group.
I certify that the information provided above is accurate and I filled this evaluation out independent of and without influence of my group. I understand the lying or exaggerating is academic dishonesty and will result in the instructor seeking the harshest possible punishment.
exaggerating is academic dishonesty and will result in the instructor seeking the exaggerating is academic dishonesty and will result in the instructor seeking the exaggerating is academic dishonesty and will result in the instructor seeking the
exaggerating is academic dishonesty and will result in the instructor seeking the harshest possible punishment.
exaggerating is academic dishonesty and will result in the instructor seeking the harshest possible punishment.
exaggerating is academic dishonesty and will result in the instructor seeking the harshest possible punishment.  Name (print):
exaggerating is academic dishonesty and will result in the instructor seeking the harshest possible punishment.
exaggerating is academic dishonesty and will result in the instructor seeking the harshest possible punishment.  Name (print):
exaggerating is academic dishonesty and will result in the instructor seeking the harshest possible punishment.  Name (print):
exaggerating is academic dishonesty and will result in the instructor seeking the harshest possible punishment.  Name (print):
exaggerating is academic dishonesty and will result in the instructor seeking the harshest possible punishment.  Name (print):